Connector: Your role is to make the connections to what happens in the story to real life. (People, places or events) Determine if the events could happen and make connections to you or somebody you know. You will need to write about why or why not certain happenings/events could or could not happen and give supporting evidence. You can also compare events in the story to other stories you've read that are similar. Connectors make comparisons in real life, with other books or with previous selections.
