Character Analyzer: Your role is to write about the characters. Tell what they're like and how you know that they're like that. Compare them with other people you know.